"ANDERSON apparently heads the office of the Lausanne edition of "African Revolution" with offices at 10-11 Netropole, Lausenne. He is also editor-secretary of "Societe Cooperative Clartee Editions."

"GIRSON has U. S. Passport No. B-131994 which was issued at Washington, D. C. on Jamuary 25, 1961. His wife is JOY MARJORIE CIESON, nee KAYE, who was born July 12, 1926, in London. She is a British subject, carries British passport-C156546, and is also a journalist. She resides in Lausanne at 17 Escaliers du Marche, where she arrived from Algeria in late April 1963 (this also is presumably the residence of her husband, PICHAPD THOMAS CIRCON.)

"According to T-1, VERGES has been denied permission to enter Switzerland. The case against AEDERSSON is still pending (probably relating to whether or not he will be allowed to remain in Switzerland.) RICKARD THEMAS GIBBON has been refused a Sviss resident's permit and has been ordered to depart from Svitzerland before December 15, 1963."

H.B. A KHYEK analysis of the publications both before and after the change of editors in May 1963 shows no significant change in the editorial policy of either the Algerian or the Swiss based versions, as is suggested in paragraph 1 of the ODEAVY report. The Algiers edition also continues to reflect a pro-ChiCom policy. Also, to our knowledge Verges is a French national not an Algerian national.
